

Our mission

HEC Montréal is a French-language institution open to the world and solidly rooted in Quebec society. Building on our excellence in teaching and research, we train management leaders who make a responsible contribution to the success of organizations and to sustainable social development.

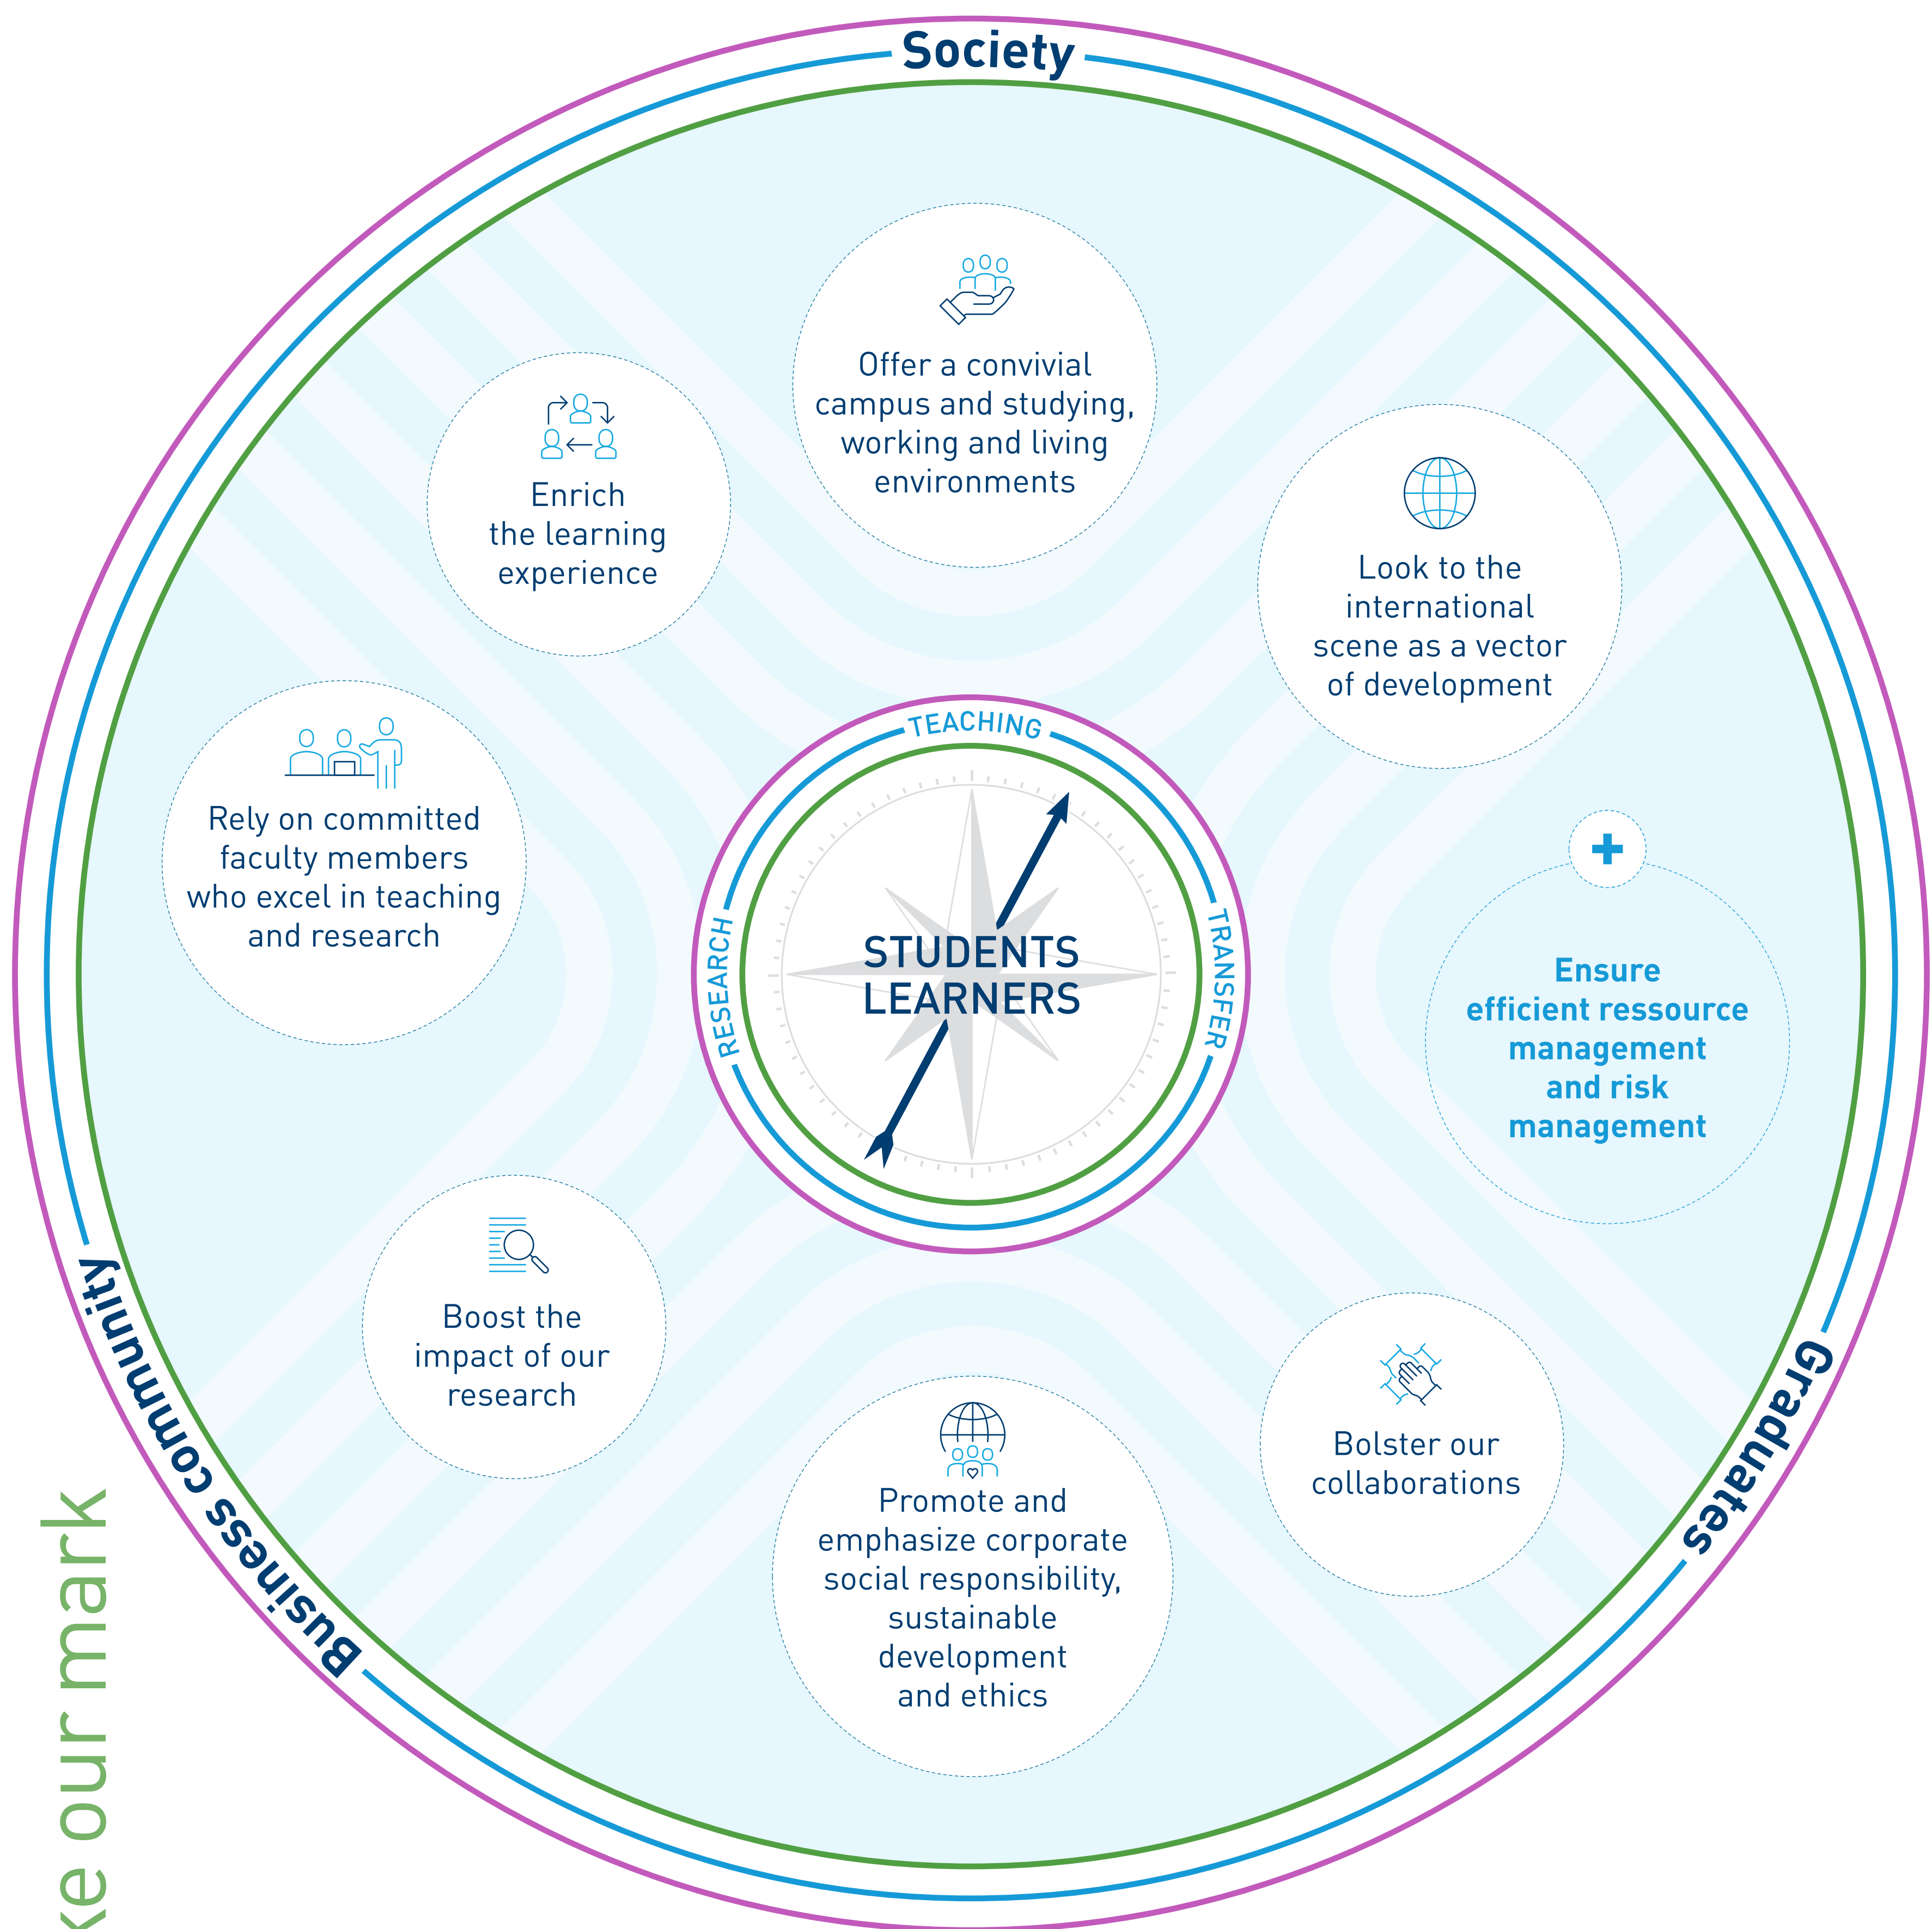

Our vision

To be a hub of management knowledge that inspires, innovates and makes our mark worldwide, through:

- The quality and relevance of our teaching and research
- Our influence and engagement in the local, national and international communities
- Our human-centred, responsible and collaborative approach.

Our true north

Provide an enriching experience throughout students' time at HEC Montréal and contribute to advancing management knowledge.

Inspire
Innovate
Make our mark

Our values: Relevance, rigour, boldness, engagement, respect, collaboration

Our mission

HEC Montréal is a French-language institution open to the world and solidly rooted in Quebec society. Building on our excellence in teaching and research, we train management leaders who make a responsible contribution to the success of organizations and to sustainable social development.

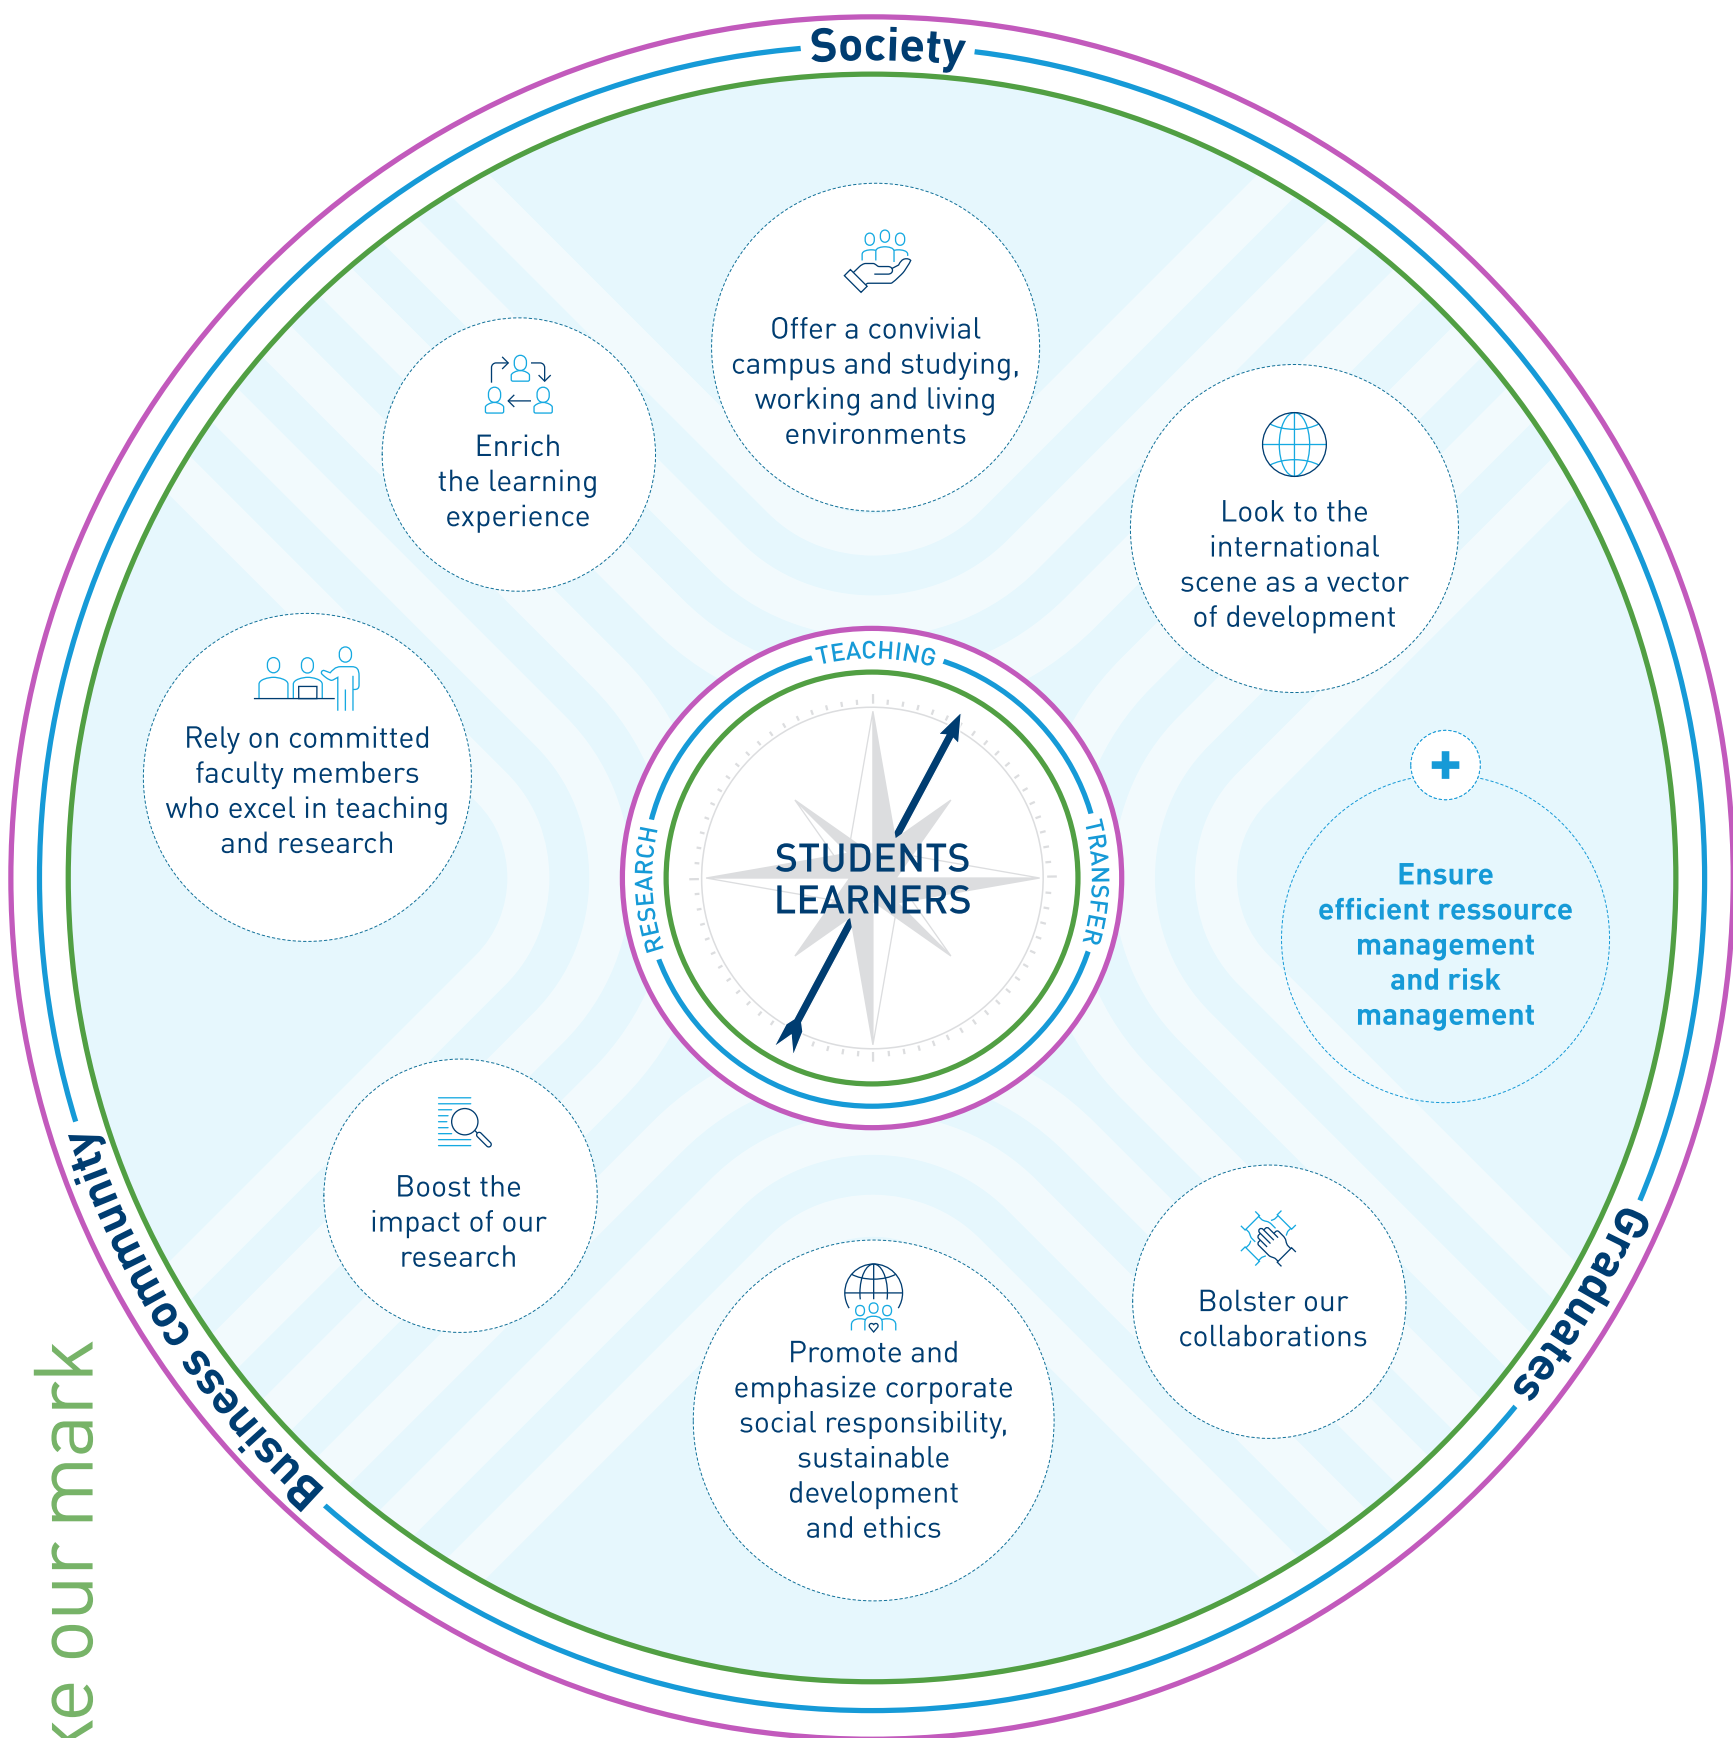

Our vision

To be a hub of management knowledge that inspires, innovates and makes our mark worldwide, through:

- The quality and relevance of our teaching and research
- Our influence and engagement in the local, national and international communities
- Our human-centred, responsible and collaborative approach.

Our true north

Provide an enriching experience throughout students' time at HEC Montréal and contribute to advancing management knowledge.

Inspire
Innovate
Make our mark

Our values: Relevance, rigour, boldness, engagement, respect, collaboration