

THE MARIA-GORETTI RESIDENCE

In the heart of Montreal, the Maria-Goretti Residence welcomes women of all origins, for both short or long term stays. It has proven to be a destination of choice for many university students. Also amongst its guests, we find young workers, students in training as well as women who are accompanying family members during their stay in one of the numerous hospitals located nearby,

PRACTICAL SIMPLICITY

All told, the Residence has 220 rooms on 5 floors. Furnishings include a single bed, storage space, a work desk, a small refrigerator and a wash basin. Certain rooms can accommodate two people.

Toilets and showers can be found on each floor but only a few rooms have their own bathroom.

KITCHEN AND LIVING ROOM

It is possible to cook on the premises. A common kitchen, which offers stoves, microwave ovens, toasters and an eating area is located on the 5th floor. A living room, equipped with cable TV, as well as a study room, are equally available for residents.

ON SITE SERVICES

- Common kitchen (stove, micro-wave ovens, toasters) and eating area
- Vending machines
- Living room with cable TV
- Study room
- Washers and dryers on each floor (coin operated)
- Public phones on each floor
- Possibility of Internet and phone service in the room (at extra cost)

SECURITY FIRST AND FOREMOST

The building is a safe haven with continual surveillance. A female security guard makes her rounds on the floors during the night.

AT AN AFFORDABLE COST

Rooms can be rented by the day or for several months. Costs vary depending on the size of the rooms and the length of the stay. Very competitive rates apply for rentals of 3 months or more. Costs include all taxes, electricity and heating costs.
