Description

CaseCoach

CaseCoach is a leading provider of online prep for consulting applications and case interviews, developed by former McKinsey interviewers and headhunters.

Their courses provide everything you need to prepare for consulting applications and to crack the case studies used at interviews with top consulting firms and other employers.

They include:

- Bite-sized video lectures covering the 12 key skills assessed by the firms across both the fit and case interviews with tips and techniques on how to build and demonstrate these skills
- 16 interview videos featuring real candidates who went on to join Bain, BCG and McKinsey, with detailed commentary on their performance
- Extensive prep material, including a library of 55+ bespoke case studies with top-mark solutions, math, structuring and exhibit drills to hone in on critical skills and a scorecard like the one your interviewer has on the other side of the table
