

Women in Operations

At Amazon, we're working to be the most customer-centric company on earth. To get there, we need exceptionally talented, bright, and driven people, like you!

If you have every thought about working for Amazon, or about working in a fulfillment center, we look forward to meeting with you. As you can see from our facilitators below, all have very different backgrounds, and journey's that have lead them to Operations in Amazon.

We would like to invite you to spend some time with these Women in Operations through a Virtual session, in partnership with HEC Montreal:

- Wednesday, June 3rd @ 5:00pm EST
- Amazon Chime; Meeting ID 1674 49 6476

Meet the Facilitators

Sahar is a Process Engineer at YYZ1, the very first fulfillment center in Canada. She has been with Amazon for almost 2 years/2 peak seasons. She joined as a university recruit a year after graduating. In between that time she worked as a store manager for a school uniform store. Sahar holds an Honours Bachelor Degree in Mental Health Studies, combining her love for Psychology and Neuroscience.

Isabella is an Operations manager at the Inbound Department at YYZ7, the largest Fulfillment Center in Canada. She has been with Amazon for 21 months, or 2 Peak seasons. Before joining Amazon, she worked for 12 years for one of the top mining companies in the world, Vale. Prior to that, she worked for 3 years for a telecom company in Brazil, as an analyst. Isabella holds a bachelor degree in Electronics Engineering, and a MBA from Schulich School of Business.

Brittany is an Operations Manager at YVR4, the most recent launch site in Vancouver. She has been with Amazon for 7 months/ 1 peak. Before joining Amazon, she worked for 10 years in Consumer Electronics, representing brands like Microsoft and Google. Brittany holds a Bachelor Degree in Political Science from Trinity Western University.
